BEST REGARDS TO MYSELF (AND EVERYONE ELSE)

once again it's you and me you took your time
I thought that maybe it was meant to be nested somewhere in my head always waiting for the moment to comeback

cause most of the time I am out of my mind spectating my own demise

so I go go go
I won't let you know where
to catch myself off guard tell em I am so sorry
my head just used me
I'm sending best regards
to myself
and everyone else

once again it's me and you perfect timing now there's nothing i can do but now after all these years I embrace it so please make the best of me

for so many times wanted you out of my mind now where in this together side by side

to myself

from the heart I speak the truth the world's in flames so nothing new I've been listening
now it's time to speak

STAY QUIET

no place you call a home but you should go back where you belong yeah I know it's never black or white but almost always gray but some things are just so fucked up that I can't look away

it's just not right
but you and I
we're the ones in charge
we live in times
we've never seen before
we can't stay quiet
anymore

five bucks for a dozen shirts it sounds so wrong it almost hurts I mean they've probably seen half the world but noone seems to care cause honey looks so good dressed in hot despair

it's just not fair
anymore

we always blame the others for everything that's wrong maybe we're the others all along

it's just not right
anymore

IT AINT ME

I've tried it once, I've tried it twice I've tried it oh so many times still I always lag behind it was never the place or time this brings out the worst in me and I can't seem to breathe it's not that this feeling sucks it's that this feeling never leaves, leaves me be

all of this
they don't have
they do not want it

it just ain't me
living on the road all year
it pains me
to be away from all that here
I am the prisoner and judge
I am the guard the locks me up
I can't flee

I know it now, I knew it then this was never what I meant just a kid, no confidence attention craving, bottomless I just need a 5-step-plan cause I blamed them all before

if you really love me why don't you love me
even more

love me more

I spent all these years chasing dreams that I don't have Just wanna be happy for a week without questioning everything that's it... but it ain't me
